Requests are processed on a first-come-first serve basis. Depending on the number of people who apply, you may or may not get all the dates you request. After submitting this application, a staff member will enter you into the sessions you requested that are still available. The day before each session we may give you a courtesy reminder call. Please contact the Library if you are unable to attend an assigned session.

You may only come to the sessions you are assigned to. No walk-ins will be accepted.

Out of district cardholders must wait until Monday, September 10th to be entered into their requested dates, with the exception of September 8th (since it falls before the September 10th registration date.)
