Robert Druckenmiller

Ralph Plotke

Andrew Black, President

Matthew Bollerman, Chief Executive Officer

Library Closed: July 4th

GRAND OPENING

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our Grand Opening at 1373 Veterans Highway. If you haven't seen our new space yet, stop in and visit.

NO FINES

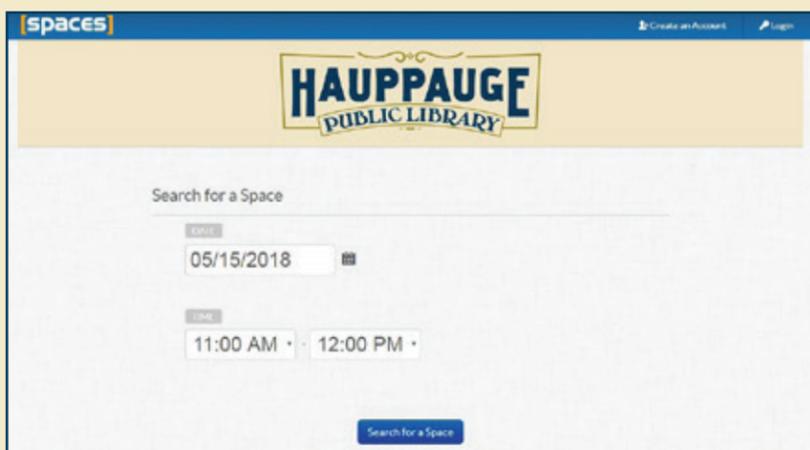

After careful deliberation, the Board of Trustees decided to change the library's overdue fine policy. There will be no overdue fees on the following materials:

Books • DVDs • Video Games • Books on CD • Music CDs

High demand items, such as Kindles, games, music equipment and museum passes will still incur late fees.

Materials that are not returned or renewed will be billed. Borrowing privileges will be stopped until the materials are returned or paid for.

RESERVE A STUDY ROOM ONLINE

Reservations for the library's study and meeting rooms can now be made online using your library card. To reserve a space, visit our website and choose Reserve from the blue menu bar at the top of the page.

CLASSROOM C MURAL

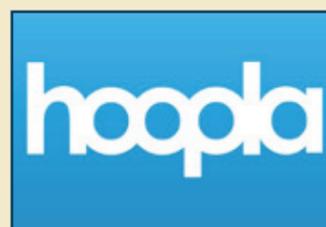

The girls in Girl Scout Troop 1606 worked on mural project in Classroom C as part of a Girl Scout Journey called The Brownie Quest. Artist Cat Ferraz worked with the girls to incorporate their ideas and drawings. Thank you to the artist and Troop 1606 for such a wonderful addition to the Children's area.

LIBRARIES ROCK!

Get free music with your Hauppauge Library card.

Use Hoopla to check out and stream music. Borrow up to 12 items every month.

Download (and keep) 5 songs weekly, and stream 3 hours of music daily with Freegal.

Both digital services can be used on your computer, tablet or phone.

To get started on your device, download the app from your app store. To use a computer, visit our website and point to Free Downloads on the blue menu bar. When the dropdown menu appears, point to Music, then select either Hoopla or Freegal.
