

Julian Aptowitz lived in Smithtown (1968-1980), before becoming a resident of Hauppauge in 1987. He is married and has two children who graduated from Hauppauge High School. As a member of the Hauppauge community, he was active in youth sports coaching in soccer, basketball and lacrosse. He served on the Hauppauge Soccer Club Board for five years. Julian and his family have been active members of the Church of the Resurrection in Smithtown.

Julian received his bachelor's degree in Literature and Psychology from the University of Michigan. He has a Master's degree in Literature from SUNY Stony Brook, and a 2nd Master's degree in Educational Technology from LIU/POST. He spent his career as a middle school and high school teacher in the Harborfields and Half Hollow Hills School Districts.

Julian has been a Hauppauge public library board member since 2018, and currently holds the position of vice president.