Hauppauge cardholders ONLY: In-person, online, and telephone registration for spring classes begins Wednesday, March 5, at 9am. Out-of-District guests: Registration for spring classes begins Wednesday, March 12.

All teen events and volunteer opportunities are for students in grades 6-12, unless otherwise specified.

"100 Books Before Graduation" Reading is an important way to understand yourself and the world around you. Our new reading initiative "100 Books Before Graduation" challenges teens in Middle and High School to read more. How many books can you read before you finish High School? Take the challenge and get rewarded with milestone prizes along the way! See a librarian for more details.

Hauppauge Public Library Teen Volunteer Opportunities - Spring-2025

Volunteer Opportunities	Grade	Day	Date	Time
-------------------------	-------	-----	------	------

If you haven't already done so, please create a volunteer profile account by visiting hauppaugelibrary.galaxydigital.com or come in and speak with a librarian to get started! If you are completing a volunteer opportunity to fulfill a specific requirement for school or another organization, please check with your teacher or advisor to make sure they will accept the community service hours.

AUTHORS UNLIMITED

Saturday, April 5, 9:30am-2:30pm

Authors Unlimited celebrates reading by connecting tweens, teens and authors! Jen Calonita (Isle of Ever, Lost Legends: Zero to Hero), Mike Cavallaro (Nico Bravo, Eowulf), and Sarah Beth Durst (The Lake House, Spy Ring) make up this year's all-star lineup! The event will begin with a group panel followed by solo sessions from each author. Books will be sold and can be signed! Attendees can earn three hours of community service credit by attending and filling out a survey at the end of the day. Registration is maintained, and community service credit is awarded, through Suffolk Cooperative Library System, not the Hauppauge Public Library. Register at au2025.eventbrite.com
